

Tarascon is a small yellow tinted town (the stone of the Gard is omnipresent), located between Drôme Provençale, Camargue, Lubéron and Alpilles. Ideal starting point for the circuits in “star” to the discovering of Lubéron (Avignon, St Rémy de Provence, les Baux de Provence...), the Camargue (Arles et Nîmes) and the Alpilles (windmills in Boulbon and Fontvieille).

On foot, horse, or bike, a lot of ballades are offered to you, without forgetting visits, outings and festivities unavoidable. Rather judge :

The theatre offers a varied and eclectic program (classic authors, one man show, entertainments, music).

The King René castle is one of the most beautiful feudal castle of France.

The house of Tartarin where you will find the anecdotes extracted from the imaginary of Alphonse Daudet,

La Collégiale Sainte-Marthe, the museum, Souleïado, the festivals of Tarasque, the Taurines days, the Medieval festival, the traditional fairs (flowers, santons...) as many discoveries with the perfumes of Provence, not to miss !

As for the gastronomy, we will have a pleasure to let you be in the know of our good addresses...

How to come in Tarascon ?

Tarascon is located near 4 airports, 3 TGV stations and the motorways A7 (North-South axis), A54 and A9 (East-West axis Spain-Italy). All these infrastructures are in a ray lower than 100 km from our city.

